Katten Attorneys Named to 2024 North Carolina Super Lawyers, Rising Stars Lists

(CHARLOTTE) Katten announced today that Real Estate attorneys Frank E. Arado and Elizabeth Dolinger were selected for the 2024 North Carolina Super Lawyers and Rising Stars lists, respectively.

Arado, a partner, has a broad-based, national practice with extensive experience in three primary areas of real estate — leasing, joint ventures and finance. He represents clients in diverse real estate transactions, including the origination, modification and restructuring of commercial mortgage loans, credit tenant lease financing, the sale of loan pools and the leasing and sale of office buildings, data centers and all other types of assets. Arado also serves as a trusted advisor to developers and equity sources for the development and ownership of a variety of real estate assets.

Dolinger, a staff attorney, represents large financial institutions in their commercial real estate needs, from due diligence issues to lease agreements. She plays a critical role in her clients' acquisitions and dispositions by offering solutions along with identifying risk and potential issues in the transaction.

Super Lawyers, part of Thomson Reuters, is a research-driven, peer influenced rating service of outstanding lawyers who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Attorneys are selected from more than 70 practice areas and all firm sizes, assuring a credible and relevant annual list. The result is a credible, comprehensive and diverse listing of exceptional attorneys.

Katten is a full-service law firm with approximately 700 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm's core areas of practice include corporate, financial markets and funds, insolvency and restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, real estate, structured finance and securitization, transactional tax planning, private credit and private wealth. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
