Katten Named Leader in Chambers High Net Worth 2024 Guide

(NEW YORK) Katten announced today that seven practices and 13 of the firm's Private Wealth and Aviation partners were ranked in the Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) 2024 guide.

Katten Private Wealth practice National Chair Joshua S. Rubenstein earned four rankings, three of which were in the highest individual standings possible in the Private Wealth Disputes, Private Wealth Law and Private Wealth Law: Eastern Region rankings. Rubenstein was also recognized in the nationwide Family Offices & Funds Structuring category. Timothy J. Lynes, Managing Partner of Katten's Washington, DC office and Chair of the firm's Aviation practice, was recognized in the Private Aircraft Global-wide category. Partner Diane B. Burks debuted in this year's guide, earning a distinction in the Private Wealth Law category.

Private Wealth Partners Bonnie Lynn Chmil, Adam M. Damerow, Ronni G. Davidowitz, Abby Feinman, Charles Harris, Michael O. Hartz, Carol A. Johnston, Kevin T. Keen, Tye J. Klooster and Kathryn von Matthiessen were also listed as top-ranked individuals, with Feinman and Johnston each receiving the highest ranking possible.

The firm's practices were recognized globally in Private Aircraft and nationally in Private Wealth Law. The firm was distinguished regionally for the first time in North Carolina and also in Illinois, New York and Southern California in Private Wealth Law, as well as in Private Wealth Disputes in New York.
