First published in 1983, Best Lawyers is based on an exhaustive annual peer-review survey. For the U.S. edition, leading attorneys cast over 3.1 million votes on the legal abilities of other attorneys in the same and related fields. Because of the rigorous and transparent methodology used by Best Lawyers – and because attorneys are ranked strictly on merit and may not pay a fee to be listed – inclusion in the guide is considered a singular honor. Corporate Counsel magazine has called Best Lawyers “the most respected referral list of attorneys in practice.”
