Katten Secures Top Spot in The Legal 500 United Kingdom 2025 Guide

(LONDON) Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP announced today that it has secured the highest ranking for Corporate and Commercial: M&A: Smaller Deals, £10m-£100m in The Legal 500 United Kingdom 2025 guide.

The firm also received rankings in five other practice areas including: Hospitality and Leisure, Derivatives and Structured Products, Financial Services: Non-Contentious/Regulatory, Property Finance, and a first-time ranking for Corporate Restructuring & Insolvency.

Partner Charlotte Sallabank was named a “Leading Individual” in the Corporate Tax category for the fifth time. This distinction spotlights true market leaders in the tax sector.

Katten was also recognized as a “Firm to Watch” in the Private Funds category as a result of the addition of Partners Thomas Laurer, Ryan Hansen and Daniel Lewin, who joined the Financial Markets and Funds and Transactional Tax Planning practices in March.

“To see our London practices and attorneys receive the well-deserved recognition for their dedication to the sectors and clients they work with is hugely gratifying,” said Christopher Hitchins, managing partner of Katten in London. “It is particularly pleasing to see that our top ranking in M&A, a new ranking for Restructuring and Insolvency, and additional recognition in Private Funds have all been achieved. This positively reflects the strategic focus on our financial services clients and transactional work.”
