Miriam Harwood is a recognized leader in international arbitration, with decades of experience handling high-profile, high-stakes disputes in commercial and investment treaty arbitrations, as well as litigation in US courts. She has represented sovereign states, state-owned entities and private corporations in a broad array of cases, including matters involving construction and infrastructure projects, renewable energy, telecommunications, mining, oil and gas projects and other commercial disputes.

An international arbitration powerhouse

Miriam has been recognized by Chambers Global, Chambers USA, Who's Who Legal, Lexology, The Legal 500 USA, Benchmark Litigation, and many other industry publications. Clients have deep respect and admiration for her skills and experience on the international stage, observing that she is “absolutely outstanding under fire from the other side” (Chambers USA, 2020), “continually delivers and has an ethic that strives for excellence” (Legal 500 USA, 2020), and is “a leading light in international arbitration” (Chambers Global, 2023).

Miriam has served as lead counsel in dozens of international arbitrations, with experience at the major arbitral organizations, including the World Bank’s International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA), the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC), the Singapore International Arbitration Center (SIAC) and under the rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade and Law (UNCITRAL). She has also advised states on the drafting of investment treaties and domestic investment laws, and taught courses on international law and arbitration. In 2020, Miriam was appointed to the prestigious ICSID Panel of Arbitrators for a six-year term.

Before focusing her practice on international arbitration, Miriam honed her skills as a commercial litigator in US courts in cases involving securities fraud, intellectual property, bankruptcy and contract disputes.
