Katten Muchin Rosenman Continues to Expand Financial Services Practice with Addition of the Former General Counsel of NYSE Arca

Janet Angstadt will be based in the Firm's Chicago office

CHICAGO – Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP is pleased to announce that Janet Angstadt, former General Counsel of NYSE Arca Inc., the New York Stock Exchange's all electronic exchange for trading equities and options (formerly Archipelago), has joined the Firm as a partner in its Financial Services Practice. Ms. Angstadt will be based in the Firm's Chicago office.

As General Counsel of NYSE Arca, Ms. Angstadt, 44, worked extensively on market structure and regulatory compliance issues, as well as managing the company's membership and registrations department. Prior to the merger of NYSE and Archipelago, she served as the Deputy General Counsel of Archipelago, where she played an integral role in formulating and implementing the company's regulatory and legal policies, as well as managing the compliance programs of four affiliated broker-dealers.

"Janet brings extensive, hands-on regulatory experience, as well as an exceptional background in market structure issues and initiatives to our group," said Arthur W. Hahn, national chair of Katten's Financial Services Practice. "Our clients are exchanges, clearing organizations, broker-dealers and international banks, and Janet's experience will be enormously valuable to them as they continue to fundamentally redesign the markets."

Prior to joining Archipelago, Ms. Angstadt was legal counsel to the capital markets group of EVEREN Securities Inc. As a senior associate at Schiff Hardin & Waite, she also represented exchange markets and broker-dealers. Ms. Angstadt previously spent four years as senior counsel for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's Division of Market Regulation.

She received her B.A. from St. Olaf College and her J.D. from DePaul University.

Katten's Financial Services Practice represents a large number of the world's premier hedge funds and money managers, major investment and commercial banks, leading firms and insurance companies, and several international exchanges. The Firm's more than 60 financial services attorneys regularly address the latest innovations in financial products and business strategy and the latest changes in the regulatory environment. This depth of experience with both institutional users of the markets and financial intermediaries allows the Firm's financial services attorneys to provide creative ideas while being responsive to the practical and economic needs of its clients.
