

PRESS RELEASE
10 December 2009

Katten Muchin Rosenman Cornish LLP expands London presence with three new hires

- Sloan Kelly joins as a Partner in the Real Estate Practice Group
- Mark Silveira joins as a Assistant Solicitor in the Corporate Practice Group
- Greg Norman joins as an Assistant Solicitor in the Financial Services Practice Group

Sloan Kelly will head the London Real Estate Practice Group and specialises in commercial real estate investment, development and financing. His clients include UK and offshore property companies, funds, institutional and private investors and the main lending institutions.

Prior to joining the Firm, Sloan was a partner at Field Fisher Waterhouse LLP and Manches LLP, in London.

Mark Silveira joins the London Corporate Practice Group as an Assistant Solicitor and has experience in domestic and cross-border corporate/commercial matters. He has particular experience advising companies and private equity investors in relation to private acquisitions and disposals, joint ventures and fund formation.

Prior to joining the firm, Mark worked at Norton Rose LLP and Kirkland & Ellis LLP in London.

Greg Norman joins the Financial Services Practice group as an Assistant Solicitor specialising in fund management and regulatory work. Greg was previously at Dechert LLP in London.

“We are delighted to welcome Sloan to head up our Real Estate practice and two very bright and capable assistants in Mark and Greg. These hires demonstrate our confidence across all areas of the Firm’s practices ” said Martin Cornish, Managing Partner of Katten Muchin Rosenman Cornish LLP.

If you would like further information please contact Charlotte Rutherford-Lee of Rostron Parry on +44 (0) 7490 8062 or email charlotte@rostronparry.com

Katten Muchin Rosenman Cornish LLP is the London affiliate of Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, a full-service US law firm with 600 attorneys in seven locations including Chicago, New York, Washington, DC, Los Angeles, Charlotte, Palo Alto and Irving. We focus on the financial services sector including investment funds, regulatory and related corporate work, general banking and real estate finance. Together, the London and US firms' offices are able to offer expert, integrated legal advice which is particularly well placed to service the needs of clients undertaking transatlantic business.

The Managing Partner of the firm is Martin Cornish, who is an acknowledged expert in the financial services field and has acted for securities commodities, derivatives and foreign exchange broker-dealers, banks, investment banks, investment managers and insurance companies for over 25 years. In particular he has been listed at various times in the Legal 500 and Chambers directories as being a recognized leader in Financial Services Regulation, Asset Management and Derivatives.