Rubenstein Among "Top-Tier" in CityWealth 100

NEW YORK – Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP is pleased to announce that Joshua S. Rubenstein, chair of its National Trusts & Estates Practice, has been named among the top wealth advisors in the world in this year's CityWealth Magazine 100 ranking. Mr. Rubenstein was listed as one of the 11 "top-tier" practitioners in the "Global ultra-high net worth and family office legal advisors" category.

The annual ranking is compiled through a poll of top international wealth advisors, who are asked to recommend the peers they "most highly respect." The CityWealth 100 includes those who are most commonly put forward by wealth professionals. Many of the recommendations received come from those who have worked in the wealth industry for up to three decades. A copy of the ranking can be found at http://www.citywealthmag.com/citywealth_printable.pdf.

Mr. Rubenstein handles a wide variety of private client matters on a local, national and international level, including personal and estate planning, the administration of estates and trusts, and contested Surrogate's Court and tax proceedings for high net worth individuals, professionals, entrepreneurs, artists, and others.
