Professional Expertise

Marc Robinson joined the Cushman & Wakefield Multifamily Advisory Group as a Vice Chair when C&W acquired Multi Housing Advisors (MHA) in 2016. Along with partner Josh Goldfarb, they co-founded MHA in 2002 and developed the practice into a strong regional brokerage firm with over $6 Billion in sales volume, representing more than 140,000 units and 850 transactions.

As a Vice Chair, Marc serves as national spokesperson for C&W's apartment brokerage practices, jointly leading the growth platform with Josh Goldfarb. He also continues to service his multifamily clients throughout the Southeast region and within the Institutional product type.

Marc is actively involved with the National Multi Housing Council (NMHC), serving as a Board of Directors member and PAC contributor. Marc also serves on the Regional Advisory Council for Apartment Life (www.apartmentlife.org) a 501©3 committed to enhancing the lives of residents of apartment communities nationwide through the CARES program. Marc holds a BS in Resource Management from Virginia Tech.
