Katten Names Six New Partners

(CHICAGO) Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP today announced that six new partners have been elected by its Board of Directors. The new partners include:

- Andrew Boldt, Litigation, Chicago
- Seth Messner, Structured Finance, Washington, DC
- Paige Barr, Insolvency and Restructuring, Chicago
- Travis Heidorf, Commercial Finance, Chicago
- Stephen Benson, Intellectual Property Litigation, Chicago
- Christina Costley, Securities Litigation, Century City, California

“This is a great milestone in the careers of these attorneys and also a tribute to their excellent work and dedication,” said Vincent A. F. Sergi, chairman of Katten.

Katten is a full-service law firm with more than 600 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm’s core areas of practice are litigation, corporate, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, real estate, environmental, commercial finance, intellectual property and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
