Katten's Andrew Klevorn, Michael Diver and Vincent Sergi Named 2014 BTI Client Service All-Stars

(CHICAGO) Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP announced today that partners Andrew Klevorn and Michael Diver and Katten Chairman Vincent A.F. Sergi were named BTI Client Services All-Stars, an honor that is conferred as a result of corporate counsel submitting unprompted feedback regarding individuals who demonstrate exceptional client service.

Klevorn, an experienced antitrust and commercial trial lawyer, was recognized this year by a global consumer goods company. His practice focuses on complex litigation, including the defense of class actions (such as claims of price-fixing or consumer fraud), False Claims Act cases, breach of contract matters and product liability/mass torts. He also advises clients with respect to the antitrust aspects of proposed mergers and acquisitions, and assists clients seeking antitrust clearance for such proposed transactions from the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the US Department of Justice (DOJ) and state attorneys general. Klevorn's work has involved a variety of industries, including consumer products, construction materials, chemicals, shipping, medical devices and pharmaceuticals, paper, industrial gases and steel.

Diver, who is the head of Katten's Chicago Securities and Enforcement Litigation practice, was recognized by a high-profile financial services firm. He represents public companies, financial services firms and other regulated entities, as well as their individual officers and directors, in matters before the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and other regulatory bodies. A former branch chief in the Division of Enforcement of the SEC's Chicago Regional Office, Diver's experience covers virtually all areas of capital markets regulatory enforcement, including matters related to the credit crisis, securitization and other structured products transactions, investment adviser and hedge fund activities, broker-dealer regulation, insider trading, and disclosure and financial fraud.

Katten's Chairman, Sergi, was recognized this year by a Fortune 500 financial services provider. As Chairman, Sergi drives the strategic direction and growth of the firm. He was elected national managing partner in 1995 and has been an integral part of shaping Katten into the firm it is today which has nearly doubled in size since he took the helm, and grown internationally in Europe and Asia. A member of Katten's first associate class, Sergi previously served as chair of the Commercial Finance group, focusing his practice on counseling lenders in all types of financing transactions.

This is the 13th year that BTI has issued its BTI Client Service All-Stars report which is generated by conducting in-depth interviews with corporate counsel to uncover factors driving superior client service. BTI conducted over 300 individual interviews with corporate counsel at Fortune 1000 and large organizations to probe clients on every aspect of law firm relationships, needs and priorities; the law firms clients rely on; and, perhaps most importantly, client expectations for client service. According to BTI, the six factors that drive exceptional client service include client focus, innovation, exceptional understanding of the client's business, legal skills, going above expectations and outstanding results.

Katten is a full-service law firm with more than 600 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm's core areas of practice are corporate, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, litigation, real estate, environmental, commercial finance, intellectual property and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
