North Carolina Super Lawyers and Rising Stars Lists Spotlight Katten Trio

(CHARLOTTE) Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP announced today that three of the firm's attorneys were recognized with spots on the 2019 North Carolina Super Lawyers list and the 2019 North Carolina Rising Stars list.

Named to the 2019 North Carolina Super Lawyers list was partner Frank E. Arado, head of Katten's Real Estate Finance and Lending practice. Selected for the 2019 North Carolina Rising Stars list were partners John W. Dombay, who focuses his practice on commercial real estate financing transactions and related matters, and Becky K. Lindahl, the head of Katten's Charlotte Litigation practice.

Super Lawyers, part of Thomson Reuters, is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The annual selections are made using a patented multiphase process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, an independent research evaluation of candidates and peer reviews by practice area. Rising Stars must be either 40 years old or younger or in practice for 10 years or less.

Katten is a full-service law firm with more than 600 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm's core areas of practice include corporate, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, litigation, real estate, environmental and workplace safety, commercial finance, intellectual property, structured finance and securitization, and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
