Katten Attorneys Named to 2019 Texas Rising Stars List by Super Lawyers

(DALLAS) Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP announced today that four of the firm's associates were named to the 2019 Texas Rising Stars list. Named to the list were Litigation team members Michael J. Chiusano and Rachel M. Riley; Transactional Tax Planning attorney Nancy Allred Collins; and Wade A. Glover, an associate in the Corporate practice.

"This extraordinary group of young lawyers represent the diverse and robust talent found in our Dallas office," said Mark S. Solomon, managing partner of Katten's Dallas office.

In February of 2018, Katten expanded its presence in Texas with a group of seven new partners based in Dallas, where many of its clients do business. Today, the office has an extraordinary group of almost forty attorneys practicing in the areas of finance, private equity, M&A, health care, white collar, real estate, corporate and litigation.

Super Lawyers is a rating service that selects outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The selection process includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations. Rising Stars candidates must be either 40 years old or younger or in practice for 10 years or less.

Katten is a full-service law firm with nearly 700 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm's core areas of practice include corporate, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, litigation, real estate, environmental and workplace safety, commercial finance, intellectual property, structured finance and securitization, and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
