Katten Attorneys Chosen for Top Women Texas Super Lawyers, Rising Stars Lists

(DALLAS) Katten announced that five of the firm's attorneys were named to the Top Women Texas Super Lawyers, Rising Stars Lists.

Named to the Top 2020 Women Texas Super Lawyers list were national co-chair of the firm's Health Care practice Lisa Atlas Genecov, and partners Cheryl Camin Murray and Kenya Woodruff, also in the Health Care practice. Transactional Tax Planning associate Nancy Allred Collins and Litigation associate Rachel M. Riley were named to the Top 2020 Women Texas Rising Stars list.

Katten has a long history of supporting women in leadership roles at the firm, in the legal industry, and in the civic community. Genecov was recently named president of the executive committee for the Center for Women in Law at the University of Texas; Murray is currently the second vice president of the board of directors of the Dallas Bar Association; and Woodruff was recently appointed national chair of the Katten Women's Leadership Forum (WLF), which is committed to advancing and retaining women attorneys through mentoring, networking and career development programs.

In addition, Riley serves as the Dallas office co-chair of Katten's WLF along with Murray, while Collins is a member of The Cary Council, an advisory group dedicated to creating a greater awareness of the mission of the Southwestern Medical Foundation and UT Southwestern Medical Center among young professionals and philanthropists.

Katten is a full-service law firm with nearly 700 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm's core areas of practice include commercial finance, corporate, health care, financial markets and funds, insolvency and restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, real estate, structured finance and securitization, transactional tax planning, and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals. For more information, visit katten.com.
