Katten Attorneys Selected to 2020 Texas Rising Stars List by Super Lawyers

(DALLAS) Katten announced today that five attorneys were named to the 2020 Texas Rising Stars list. Named to the list were Corporate partner Wade A. Glover; Transactional Tax Planning associate Nancy Allred Collins; and Litigation associates Michael J. Chiusano, Ryan J. Meyer and Rachel M. Riley.

“This group of impressive lawyers underscores our commitment to attracting and retaining the finest talent to our Dallas office so we can better serve our clients,” said Mark S. Solomon, managing partner of Katten’s Dallas office. “These ‘Rising Stars’ are part of an extraordinary group of nearly 40 top attorneys in our Dallas office who have distinguished Katten as the go-to law firm for providing pragmatic and business-minded counsel to clients in a wide range of industries.”

Katten opened the Dallas location in 2018 and recently relocated the firm’s office to Klyde Warren Park, putting Katten attorneys and clients closer to the communities where they live and work. The office is geared toward what the next generation of attorneys are asking for — a high-tech, flexible, sustainable and efficient use of space.

Super Lawyers is a rating service that selects outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The selection process includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations. Rising Stars candidates must be either 40 years old or younger or in practice for 10 years or less.

Katten is a full-service law firm with nearly 700 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm’s core areas of practice include corporate, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, litigation, real estate, environmental and workplace safety, commercial finance, intellectual property, structured finance and securitization, and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
