REMOTE NOTARIZATION

- Governor Roy Cooper signed the North Carolina COVID-19 Relief bills into law which, among other things, allow for the remote notarization of documents. The requirement of personal appearance before a notary is satisfied for the purpose of a video notarization if the notary is physically present in North Carolina at the time of notarization, the principal signing the document identifies the county where they are located at the time of notarization, and the principal and notary use video conference technology that complies with the other requirements specified in the law. The allowance for remote notarization is effective May 4, 2020 and expires on August 1, 2020 at 12:01 A.M. Governor Roy Cooper signed House Bill 1023 on July 1, 2020 that, among other things, extended the allowance for remote notarization to March 1, 2021. Upon expiration of such allowance, remote notarization would not be permitted in North Carolina
