NEW! FCA and PRA Statements on HM Treasury's Amendments to the UK's CBILS, CLBILS and BBL Schemes

HM Treasury has amended the coronavirus business interruption loan scheme ("CBILS") and the new bounce back loan ("BBL") scheme to support small businesses. In response, the FCA notes that certain FCA Handbook creditworthiness rules and customer due diligence procedures for lenders may be relaxed in some limited instances in connection with the CBILS. The PRA's statement considers whether guarantees provided by the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy under the amended CBILS and the coronavirus large business interruption loan scheme ("CLBILS") are eligible for recognition as unfunded credit risk mitigation under the Capital Requirement Regulation.

FCA Webpage on Financial Advisers' Professional Indemnity Insurance ("PII")

The FCA published a new webpage setting out its position on the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on financial advisers' PII. Following the FCA's conversations with the International Underwriting Association, it understands that PII cover remains available in the market and the COVID-19 pandemic is not preventing insurers from undertaking the renewals process. The FCA continues to require firms to have PII policies in place in accordance with its rules, to support their ability to meet liabilities as they fall due and protect their consumers.

FCA Publishes Revised COVID-19 Statement

The FCA issued a revised statement on its joint efforts with the Bank of England and HM Treasury to engage with firms, trade associations and industry bodies to understand the pressures they are facing as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. This work includes actively reviewing the contingency plans of a wide range of firms. In particular, while the FCA has no objection in principle to staff working from home or from alternative sites, it expects that firms will, for example, use recorded lines when trading and give staff access to any compliance support they may need.

FCA and PSR Respond to the CMA's Guidance on Business Cooperation under Competition Law.

Both the FCA and the UK's Payment Systems Regulator ("PSR") supported the UK's Competition and Markets Authority's guidance on its approach to business cooperation under competition law. Both regulators will take a consistent approach to their competition law enforcement activity, which should not impede firms from working together to provide essential services to consumers during the COVID-19 pandemic. At the same time, the FCA and the PSR will not tolerate conduct that exploits the situation and harms consumers.

Short Selling Updates

In a statement, the FCA announced that it continues to monitor market and short selling activity closely. The statement provides that aggregate net short selling activity reported to the FCA is low as a percentage of total market activity and there is no evidence that short selling has driven the recent market falls. In the FCA's updated statement, it noted that it will be ready to receive notifications at the new, lower 0.1% net short threshold set by ESMA from April 6, 2020.

Impact of COVID-19 on Firms' LIBOR Transition Plans

The FCA, Bank of England ("BoE") and members of the Working Group on Sterling Risk-Free Reference Rates ("Working Group") concluded that firms must not rely on LIBOR being published after the end of 2021, even in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. There has, however, been an impact on the timing of some aspects of the transition programs of many firms and some interim transition milestones. The FCA, BoE and Working Group will continue to monitor and assess the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on transition timelines with a view to updating market participants as soon as possible.
