New! ESMA Highlights a Potential Decoupling of Financial Market Performance and Underlying Economic Activity in its Risk Dashboard

ESMA published its first complete risk dashboard for 2020, which maintains the very high risk levels noted in its previous assessments following the outbreak of COVID-19. ESMA notes that there is potential for a decoupling of financial market performance and underlying economic activity, which could possibly lead to further risk and market corrections in the EU.

Regulatory Initiatives Grid Launched

The Financial Services Regulatory Initiatives Forum, comprised of the Bank of England, PRA, FCA, Payment Systems Regulator, Competition and Markets Authority, and HM Treasury, launched a new initiative, the Regulatory Initiatives Grid (the "Grid"), to help financial firms prepare for upcoming regulatory work. The launch of the Grid was brought forward due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Grid sets out the planned timetable for major initiatives, including the transition from LIBOR and the introduction of financial services legislation post Brexit.

FCA Publishes Revised COVID-19 Statement

The FCA issued a revised statement on its joint efforts with the Bank of England and HM Treasury to engage with firms, trade associations and industry bodies to understand the pressures they are facing as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. This work includes actively reviewing the contingency plans of a wide range of firms. In particular, while the FCA has no objection in principle to staff working from home or from alternative sites, it expects that firms will, for example, use recorded lines when trading and give staff access to any compliance support they may need.

FCA and PSR Respond to the CMA's Guidance on Business Cooperation under Competition Law.

Both the FCA and the UK's Payment Systems Regulator ("PSR") supported the UK's Competition and Markets Authority's guidance on its approach to business cooperation under competition law. Both regulators will take a consistent approach to their competition law enforcement activity, which should not impede firms from working together to provide essential services to consumers during the COVID-19 pandemic. At the same time, the FCA and the PSR will not tolerate conduct that exploits the situation and harms consumers.

Impact of COVID-19 on Firms' LIBOR Transition Plans

The FCA, Bank of England ("BoE") and members of the Working Group on Sterling Risk-Free Reference Rates ("Working Group") concluded that firms must not rely on LIBOR being published after the end of 2021, even in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. There has, however, been an impact on the timing of some aspects of the transition programs of many firms and some interim transition milestones. The FCA, BoE and Working Group will continue to monitor and assess the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on transition timelines with a view to updating market participants as soon as possible.

NEW! BoE Publishes its Interim Financial Stability Report and Quarterly Monetary Policy Report

The BoE published an interim financial stability report setting out its view of the performance of the UK's financial system during the COVID-19 pandemic and the outlook for the UK's financial stability, including its assessment of the resilience of the UK financial system. The BoE has also published its quarterly monetary policy report that sets out its response to the COVID-19 pandemic in relation to the BoE's interest rate and the UK's level of inflation. In the financial stability report, the BoE has advised that while there may be a need for short-term reprioritisation, market participants should remain focused on the continued importance of removing reliance on Libor by the end of 2021.
