NEW! FCA Updates Statement on Firms' Complaint Handling during COVID-19

The FCA updated its statement, originally published on May 1, 2020, instructing firms on how to handle complaints during the COVID-19 pandemic. The FCA stressed that firms have had sufficient time to adjust to new ways of working caused by the pandemic and emphasized that a failure to comply with any FCA complaint handling requirements should only arise under exceptional circumstances. If a firm is facing difficulties complying with the requirements, it should inform its supervisory contact and notify the FCA of the steps being taken to manage and respond to its non-compliance. The FCA intends to review the statement again by the end of April 2021.

FCA Webpage Updates Deadlines for Relief over Publication of Fund Reports and Accounts

In April 2020, the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) issued a statement permitting FCA authorized fund managers additional time to produce annual and bi-annual reports and accounts, including, the assessment of value reports where applicable, in response to the operative challenges resulting from COVID-19. Having provided firms the necessary time to adjust to pandemic related changes, the FCA intends to end the temporary relief permitted to firms with an accounting date after September 30, 2020. Notably, temporary measures are to stay in place in respects of funds with an annual or bi-annual accounting date prior to August 31, 2020. Authorised fund managers of UK UCITS schemes will need to publish relevant annual reports no later than February 28, 2021, and bi-annual reports by November 30, 2020. Funds with an annual or bi-annual accounting date on or before September 30, 2020 will be permitted one month's relief. The FCA will continue to monitor the developments around the measures in the coming months.
